

My Scholar Story

Currently, I am studying abroad in Sweden. I will be graduating from UC Riverside this Spring earning a Bachelor's in Sociology. I have applied and been accepted to CSULB's M.S. Counseling and Student Development in Higher Education Graduate program for Fall 2014. I would hope to enhance my prior learning from UCR and enrich my understanding to provide effective counseling support services to individuals in need. After earning my M.S. Counseling degree I want to work at a community college, counseling students and teaching career and student development courses.

Earning a Mt. San Antonio College scholarship served to promote my current successes and validated my educational efforts. Being a scholarship recipient encouraged me to become civically engaged within my local community as a volunteer. To say the least, being a Mt. SAC scholar helped me to underscore my self-discipline, my
